Student Comments

4. The student comments were all favorable with little new or constructive suggestions.

Conclusions or Recommendations

5. Suggestions which this instructor would like to propose for consideration are:

a. A presentation on the first day on the "United States Intelligence Board." This could be handled by the OTR instructor and probably would not require more than thirty minutes.

b. The necessity for continued coverage, and especially one hour, on "Third National Operations" is questionable.

c. [REDACTED] should again cover the Office of the Comptroller using the excellent graphics presentation method and more time should be allotted, possibly an hour and a half.

d. In order to meet Mr. Kirkpatrick's schedule he was last on the program this time. His lecture appears to be an excellent summary with which to close the review.

6. Attached is a copy of the schedule and a roster of students.
